

CELEBRATION NEWSLETTER – 24th November 2022

STARS OF THE WEEK:

Mr. Smith: Charlie H - creative work across all subjects especially in Outdoor Learning.

Mrs. Hoskyns & Miss Riley: Lara, working hard in lessons, especially with her handwriting and presentation skills.

Mrs. Crabtree: Harriett W for going above and beyond in all her lessons.

Mr. Sharpe: Deborah, for really improving her focus and standard of work.

Mrs. Taylor & Mr. Dovey: Samuel L - for fantastic work in Computing recently! He is an absolute 'whizz' on 'Scratch.' Not only was he very helpful to other children on this software program; he was also very helpful to the teachers!

Mr. Batchford: Lexi Calladine – for really beginning to take responsibility over her own learning, striving for excellence in all that she does.

MY HEADTEACHER AWARDS THIS WEEK GO TO:

Freddie Gilbody – for making a great start at The Junior School by working hard, joining in, and being sensible and well-behaved. Freddie you are a good friend, and you are polite and friendly. Keep this up!

Samuel Jones – for working hard in school and at home to do your very best all of the time. Samuel you are always well-behaved in class and around school, you are a caring and thoughtful friend, and you want to do well in all areas of the curriculum. Keep up this positive attitude!

Connie Bayliss – for being polite, friendly and cheery, for always working hard and doing your best, and generally for just being a lovely girl. You are doing really well Connie – keep this up!

Freya Hill – for setting a great example in terms of work ethic, behaviour and general attitude towards life. Freya you are polite and thoughtful, and you are friendly and helpful. Keep being you! 😊
